

Corrections to the R-PAS Manual

July 20, 2018

All authors dislike finding mistakes in their writings or statements that can be misleading. We are no exception. However, we believe that it is best to identify and correct these errors as soon as possible. To this end, we have made corrections to the manual each time we have had it reprinted. This document provides a complete list of corrections that we have made since the first printing of the softcover manual in August of 2011. All of the corrections are incorporated in the current printing, which is the 8th printing of the softcover manual.

To determine which printing you own, turn to the Copyright page. On line 19, just below the text box, it provides the name of the company we used for printing services. If the line after that is blank, you have the first printing of the softcover manual. Otherwise, it will say which printing it is. The corrections are listed by printing in reverse order. If you have the 8th printing of the softcover manual, you can ignore all the corrections listed. If you have the 7th softcover printing or 1st hardcover printing, you only need to note the initial set of corrections listed below.

We differentiate corrections that may have potential implications for applied use from those that do not. Users are strongly encouraged make the former corrections directly in their copy of the manual, though the latter can be safely ignored if desired.

Corrections from the 1st Hardcover or 7th Softcover Manual to the 8th Softcover Manual

Corrections that have potential implications for applied use

p. 14, Paragraph 3, line 5: With respect to Prompt instructions, changed “The examiner can repeat a version” of the reminder to “The examiner should repeat a version” of the reminder.

p. 38, Paragraph 2, line 4: Changed “If a response is given to the card in the upright position, but the card was turned at least 90 degrees before giving a response, the @ symbol is coded.” to “If a response is given to the card in the upright position, but the card was turned from upright at least 90 degrees before the response, the @ symbol is coded.”

p. 275, Response #16: The rationale was changed from “The response communicates form and structure so Vg is not coded” to “The response communicates form and structure (explode and disperse) so Vg is not coded.”

p. 286, Counts section, CT entry: The final sentence was changed from “This includes instances when the final response orientation is designated by the sideways symbols (< or >), the upside down symbol (v), or when turning occurred but the final response was in the upright orientation (@).” to “This includes instances when the final response orientation is designated by the sideways symbols (< or >), the upside down symbol (v), or when turning from upright occurred but the final response also was in the upright orientation (@).”

p. 485, a-p section: The example was changed from “a butterfly flying away from two guys standing there.” to “a butterfly flying away from two ducks standing there.”

p. 489, Pu section: The word “typically” was removed to indicate the examiner should always provide a reminder of the instructions if four responses are given.

Corrections that safely can be ignored

p. 120, Paragraph 3: The non-paired closing bracket (“]”) was removed from the end of the paragraph.

p. 340, Inanimate Movement section: In the final sentence, the last comma was moved from after “originating” to after “from.”

p. 520: The Hibbard (2009) citation was removed.

Corrections from the 6th Softcover Manual to the 1st Hardcover Manual

Corrections that have potential implications for applied use

p. 79, Row “Ay”, Last 3 lines: Changed “On the other hand, arrowhead is not considered to be specific culturally, so that it would not be coded Ay unless a cultural reference is added (e.g., code Ay for “Indian arrowhead”).” to “On the other hand, an arrowhead or feather is not considered to be specific culturally, so would not be coded Ay unless a cultural reference was added (e.g., code Ay for “Indian arrowhead”).”

p. 80, Row “Cg”): Changed “Clothing, including typical items like a bowtie, shirt, dress, shoes, boots, or hat. Often clothing is seen with a human content so both are coded, for example, H, Cg. Clothing is also coded for belts, scarves, glasses and other secondary items or accessories. If clothing objects are primarily decorative or if style is emphasized, Art may also be coded.” to “Clothing, including typical items like a bowtie, shirt, dress, boots, or hat. If clothing is seen with a human content, both are coded, e.g., H, Cg. Clothing is also coded for belts, scarves, glasses and other secondary items or accessories (e.g. “a woman with a feather in her hair”). If clothing objects are primarily decorative or if style is emphasized, Art may also be coded.”

p. 110, Paragraph 2, Line 3: Changed “to the symmetry of the blot” to “to the fact the blot is the same on both sides”.

p. 139, Under “Powerful and dangerous environmental forces”): Changed “Volcano Erupting” to “Volcano”.

p. 295, Paragraph beginning “Complexity”, Second to last line: Added “As such, R is the fourth component of Complexity.” after “Protocol-Level Complexity score.”.

p. 381, Row 14, Column “Response”, Last Line: Added “(^)” after “D2).”.

Corrections that can be safely ignored

p. Copyright Page, beneath “Limited License to Photocopy” box: Changed “Printing by Metzgers Printing Services” to “Printing by Homewood Press”.

p. Copyright Page, beneath “Limited License to Photocopy” box: Changed “Sixth” to “First Hardcover”

p. Copyright Page, 3rd Line from bottom: Changed “978-1-937450-00-7” to “978-1-937450-03-8”

p. 4, Line 6: Added “or not” after “administration”.

p. 17, Paragraph 2, Line 4: Changed “were” to “was”.

p. 54, Table 3.10, footnote 2: Changed “original” to “originally”.

p. 134, Paragraph beginning “MA Pathology”, 3rd line from bottom: Added “,” after “Typically”.

p. 239, Middle column: Changed “Clouds (with Explosion, Fire, Lightning)” to “Clouds (with Explosion, Fire, Lightning)”.

p. 257, Row 27, Column “Clarification”, Line 2: Moved the “.” from before to after “(D2)”.

p. 449, Row “ODL%”, Last line: Deleted “Bornstein” after “1996”.

p. 519: Changed

“Exner, J. E. (1997). Rorschach Research Study Group Mission Statement. Unpublished manuscript.

Exner, J. E. (1997). Rorschach Workshops and the future. 1997 Alumni Newsletter. Asheville, NC: Rorschach Workshops.”

Exner, J. E. (1997b). Rorschach Workshops and the future. 1997 Alumni Newsletter. Asheville, NC: Rorschach Workshops.”

Corrections from the 5th to 6th Printing of the Softcover Manual

Corrections that have potential implications for applied use

p. 14, Paragraph 3, Line 10: Replaced “Alternatively, if it seems the respondent clearly understands the preferred boundaries and is annoyed with repeated instructions about how many responses to give, the examiner may omit the “two, or maybe three” phrase altogether in favor of preserving rapport” with “If a respondent spontaneously returns the card before the examiner has a chance to act, a reminder that the goal is to get two or three responses per card still should be provided. However, no such reminder is needed on Card X.”

p. 23, Figure 2.2, Response 15: added “@” to the “Or” column to document card turning.

p. 23, Figure 2.2, Response 16: added “@” to the “Or” column to document card turning.

p. 23, Figure 2.2, Response 17: added “v” before “A beautiful butterfly” to document card turning.

p. 24, Line 12: Replaced “usually preferable” with “standard”.

p. 38, Paragraph under “Prompts (Pr) and Pulls (Pu)”, line 2: Added “Prompting to prevent card rejection is also coded as Pr” after “for another response.”.

p. 38, Paragraph under “Prompts (Pr) and Pulls (Pu)”, line 4: Added “or give a reminder” after “pull the card”.

p. 41, Row “Fi”: Added “hot lava” after “embers”.

p. 58, Text of the partial paragraph before “Location and Space Codes”: Now reads: “because the administration guidelines require the examiner to prompt for another response if only one response is given to a card, that examiner behavior should be coded along with the response on which it occurred; that is at the right hand end of the line of the first response. Prompting to prevent card rejection is also recorded as a Pr here. Pu is coded with the fourth response to any card when the examiner asks for the card back and gives a reminder. Because the Pull and reminder take place when the respondent has given four responses, that examiner behavior is coded along with the fourth response to the card. To clarify a related point, if the respondent gives four responses and voluntarily hands the card back, so that only the reminder to give two or three responses is given, a Pu is still recorded. However, if this happens on the 10th card, the reminder can be omitted and no Pu coded.”

p. 79, Section “Ad”, Line 2: Added “wings on a totem pole,” after “seashell,”.

p. 79, Section “An”, Line 3: Added “veins,” after “ovaries,”.

p. 79-80, Section “Bl”:

Now reads “Blood. Cuts, wounds, or menstruation described as red would also merit this code. Red veins, arteries, or capillaries are coded An; Bl is only added if its presence is identified.”.

p. 80, Section “Fi”, Line 1: Deleted “references to” and added “hot lava,” after “embers,”.

p. 96, Row “VIII”, Column “Popular Criteria”: Added “of a mammal” after “Whole animal figure”.

p. 140, Table 4.12, Row 8: Deleted “Snake,” from Below Threshold column and replaced “Poisonous Snake” with “Snake (unspecified)” in the Above Threshold column.

p. 145, Paragraph 3, Line 2-3: Now reads “For instance, code ODL for “It looks like ice cream but it also looks like plastic melting” or...”.

p. 257, Row 28, Column “Response”: Added “> v” before text to document card turning.

p. 258, Row 33, Column “Response”: Added “> v” before text to document card turning.

p. 258, Row 36, Column “Response”: Added “>” before text to document card turning.

p. 258, Row 38, Column “Response”: Added “v” before text to document card turning.

p. 258, Row 43, Column “Response”: Added “>” before text to document card turning.

p. 259, Row 44, Column “Response”: Added “< v” before text to document card turning.

p. 259, Row 47, Column “Response”: Added “> v” before text to document card turning.

p. 259, Row 48, Column “Response”: Added “< v” before text to document card turning.

p. 259, Row 52, Column “Response”: Added “v” before text to document card turning.

p. 260, Row 59, Column “Response”: Added “>” after “Neat colors ...” to document card turning.

p. 261, Row 68, Column “Response”: Added “<” before text to document card turning.

p. 263, Row 83, Column “Response”, Line 1: Added “> v <” before “Some...” to document card turning.

p. 264, Row 90, Column “Response”: Added “< v” before text to document card turning.

p. 273, Row 12, Column “Loc#”: Replaced “1” with “11”.

p. 275, Row 8: Replaced “No comment.” With “Ad is coded for “wings,” just as A would have been coded had an “eagle” been identified.”

p. 366, Paragraph beneath “Summary Scores on the Page 2 Profile”, Line 1-3: Now reads: “Interpret Summary Scores on the Page 2 Profile more tentatively than Page 1 variables. In general, more extreme deviations from the expected value may be required to lend interpretive meaning to the Page 2 variables. For instance, for Page 2 variables one could consider scores to be...”.

p. 381, Row 14, Column “Or”: Added “@”.

p. 381, Row 15, Column “Response”: Replaced “(^) &” with “And”.

p. 386, Row 14, Column “Or”: Added “@”.

p. 448: Below “Stress and Distress—Page 1”: Moved the row for YTVc’ that had been on Profile Page 2 (p. 455) to the row just above Inanimate Movement (i.e., YTVc’ is now the first row in the Stress and Distress section on Profile Page 1).

p. 451: Deleted the row for “V-Comp” that had been on Profile Page 1 and moved it to the Self and Other Representation section on Profile Page 2 just above Reflections (p. 457).

p. 455: As noted above, deleted the row for YTVc’ and moved it to p. 448.

p. 457: As noted above, added the row for V-Comp above Reflections (i.e., V-Comp is now the third row in the Self and Other Representation section on Profile Page 2).

Corrections that can be safely ignored

Copyright Page, beneath “Limited License to Photocopy” box: Changed “Printing by Allegra Printing Services, Inc. Fifth Printing” to “Printing by Metzgers Printing Services. Sixth Printing”.

Corrections from the 3rd to the 4th Printing of the Softcover Manual

Corrections that have potential implications for applied use

- p. 18, final line: “after the standard step of repeating the Response Phase verbalization” has been added after the word “necessary”.
- p. 45, first paragraph, final line: “discussing” has become “debating”.
- p. 54, Table 3.10, under “Cognitive Codes”, 2nd row: “PER” has been removed.
- p. 54, Table 3.10, under “Thematic Codes”, 1st row: “PER” has been added.
- p. 76, line 5: With strikethrough indicating deletions and underlying indicating insertions, the text now reads “coding what he or she communicates. ~~Because~~ Except for the upper outside part of IX-D8 and four vertical portions of IX-Dd22, these areas are not true white space. Thus, they are not ~~considered to be~~”
- p. 78, Table 4.2, row “(H)”, line 2: “a man-bird” has been added after “a giant, a fairy”.
- p. 78, Table 4.2, row “(H)”, line 4-5: Now reads “description, such as bipedal, having arms, or talking. “Creatures” ~~more often refers to fictional animals~~ are typically coded (A) or A but would be coded (H) if they have these human-like”

p. 78, Table 4.2, row “Hd”, line 3: “significant” has been removed and “needed to live” has been added after “part of the body”.

p. 78-79, Table 4.2, row “(A)”: Now reads: “An imaginary, fictional, or cartoon animal, such as a unicorn, Pegasus, Godzilla, King Kong, Nemo, Donald Duck, griffin, phoenix, teddy bear, humanoid butterfly, or dragon. Creatures, monsters, Monsters or aliens are coded often (H) but code (A) if further elaboration includes animal-like descriptions, such as four-legged, having a tail, or stalking, without pre-potent human characteristics or with a predominance of animal-like descriptions. Creatures are often coded (A) but at times this word refers to a real but unspecified animal (e.g., “Some flying creature with wings”). In the absence of elaborations suggesting (A) or (H), the default code for such responses is A.”

p. 79, Table 4.2, row “(Ad)”, line 2: “a face of a bug-person” has been added after “a cartoon rat”.

p. 81, paragraph “Real versus imaginary”, line 5 after the sentence ending with “unreal.”: Added “Thus, code H for “a person with wings,” but (H) for “it looks sort of like a person but with wings, like a winged creature,” “the mythological Greek figure, Icarus,” or “a bird-man.””

p. 81, paragraph “Real versus imaginary”, last line: Added “e.g., “Some fairytale butterfly with hands” after “(Ad)”.

p. 83, paragraph “Anatomy Responses”, line 1: Changed “D3” to “D2”.

p. 85, second paragraph, line 3-4: Now reads: “relatively accurate and ~~relatively~~ common. In general, ~~they are quickly and easily seen.~~ their shape “matches the blot pretty well” (see Chapter 13, e.g., p. 424). Overall, FQu responses are less”.

p. 95, footnote 19: Added “Thus, on Card III only humans and representations of humans are coded P; human-like objects are not” after the first sentence of the footnote.

p. 108, under heading “Texture (T)”, 4th example: Removed “, assuming the respondent somehow indicated or referred to the shaded part of the card”.

p. 108, under heading “Communication of shading”, second paragraph, line 2: Replaced “fur” with “furry object”.

p. 138, first line: Added “In general, an object that is “eating” without further elaboration would not qualify for AGM” after “activity to qualify for AGM”.

p. 140, Table 4.12: The entries have been rearranged by phylum and family and some new benchmark examples have been added. The new entries are italicized in the reorganized table below:

Table 4.12 AGC Threshold Examples

Generally Below the Threshold for AGC	Generally Above the Threshold for AGC
Protozoa, Microorganism, Algae	Virus, Germ (pathogen), Bacteria
Spider	Black Widow, Tarantula, Big Spider, Wolf Spider
Bee	Wasp, Hornet

Animal parts: Used for ornamentation or walking, such as hooves, horns, antlers	Animal parts: Used for clenching, grabbing, stinging, such as claw, pincers, tentacles, mandibles, tusks

p. 144, row “O7. Oral Instruments”, column “Elaboration & Exclusions”: Added “Code thermometer only if it is clearly for oral use”.

p. 166, second line after table: “No clarification is needed” has become “No further clarification for color is needed”.

p. 258, row “36”, column “Response”: Inserted “in” before “D1”.

p. 260, row “60” column “Clarification”, line 2: “(D1)” has become “(D11)”.

p. 273, row “49”, column “Loc #”: “1” has become “11”.

p. 274, row “60”, column “Loc #”: “1” has become “11”.

p. 274, row “74”, column “Thematic”: Added “COP”

p. 274, row “77”, column “Card”: “X” has become “IX”.

p. 274, row “79”, column “FQ”: “o” has become “-”.

p. 275, row “12”, column “Coding Rationale”: Now reads: “~~FQu because human at D1 is FQu, so extrapolate for “ghost.”~~ At D1 Human is FQ- and H or H-like Head is FQo. For these ghosts a whole figure is implied but they are seen as “blobs” without clear form, so code FQu.”

p. 275, row “18”, column “Coding Rationale”, last line: Added “E should have clarified “holes” for dimensionality (FD or V).” after “SI is coded.”.

p. 277, row “52”, column “Coding Rationale”: Now reads: “~~FQo due to extrapolation because Inverted card has “torches with smoke” is FQo upside down and as FQu; upright “fire with smoke” is FQo right side up.~~ The response objects are vague (unlike “torches”) making orientation less important; code FQo. C’ rather than Y for smoke because the respondent said it was due to color. Not enough definite form for FC.”

p. 278, row “60”, column “Coding Rationale”: The second sentence now reads: “FQu by extrapolation: although Tree is not listed at D1 D11, foliage is FQu o, plant is u, and shrubs are u, and thus by extrapolation tree would be coded FQu; fire at D3 is ø FQo.”

- p. 279, row “79” column “Coding Rationale”, last sentence beginning with “Despite” was deleted and replaced with “Although a human or human-like figure with wings would be coded FQo, a human face to the W is listed as FQ- so it is coded FQ-.”
- p. 281, row “93”, column “Coding Rationale”, line 7: Added “or breasts” after “ODL for ovaries”.
- p. 363, row “PHR Proportion”, column “Interpretation”, third paragraph, line 3: Added “generally” before “unreliable”.
- p. 382, row “19”, column “Response”, last 2 lines: Added “(D4)” after “light green” and added “(D5)” after “the flags”.
- p. 383, row “22”, column “Clarification”, last line: Added “[Could clarify within for dimensionality.]” after “in the other direction.”.
- p. 384, Figure 11.1: Added “13 = W” next to Card VI on the location chart.
- p. 386, Figure 11.2: Added “SI” code to response 22.
- p. 387, Figure 11.3: Corrected to list SI = 8 rather than 7.
- p. 388, paragraph 1, line 1: “(see Figures 13.4 and 13.5” has become “(see Figures 11.4 and 11.5”.
- p. 388, paragraph 1, line 5: Removed “the Ego Impairment Index (EII-3 = 121),”.
- p. 388, paragraph 1, line 8: Changed “(SI = 127)” to “(SI = 130)”.
- p. 388, paragraph 1, line 11-12: Removed “though the general level of disturbance suggested by his EII-3 elevation will need to be considered carefully”.
- p. 389, line 10: Removed “EII-3,”.
- p. 389, paragraph 5, line 6: Changed “85” to “84”.
- p. 390, paragraph 6, line 9-10: Lines have been changed to read “to the environment in making his way through life ($M/MC = 446/118$). Although his Color Dominance Proportion is would be considered average $\{ (CF+C)/SumC = 99 \}$, we would do not interpret it because it is based on just two relevant responses”.
- p. 391, paragraph “11”, line 6: “121” has become “118”.
- p. 391, paragraph “11”, line 9: “117” has become “115”.
- p. 391, paragraph “11”, line 6: “113” has become “111”.
- p. 393, paragraph “15”, line 1: Removed “quite”.
- p. 393, paragraph “15”, line 1: “117” has become “114”.
- p. 393, paragraph “15”, line 11: “111” has become “110”.
- p. 393, paragraph “15”, line 13: “105” has become “103”.
- p. 394, paragraph “17”, line 2: “6.9” has become “7.0”.

- p. 395, paragraph “20”, line 6: “132” has become “131”.
- p. 396, paragraph, “23”, third line from bottom: “127” has become “130”.
- p. 397, paragraph “25”, 7 lines from bottom: Added “very” before “high”.
- p. 397, paragraph “25”, 6 lines from bottom: “115)” has become “122) and”.
- p. 398, paragraph “28”, line 3: “125” has become “127”.
- p. 405, Figure 11.5: Corrected to list 8 SI rather than 7, with %tile = 97 and SS = 130.
- p. 407, Figure 11.7: Corrected to list 8 SI rather than 7, with Complexity Adjusted %tile = 97 and SS = 128.
- p. 408, Figure 11.8: Corrected to list 8 SI rather than 7, with updated %tiles and SSs.

Corrections that can be safely ignored

- p. 59, Paragraph “Location numbers”, line 4: “location” has become “locations”.
- p. 60, “Procedures for Coding Location”, entry 1) b): “a D location” has become “a listed D location”.
- p. 73, first line beneath 3 images of Card X: “Dd29” has become “DdS29”.
- p. 88, paragraph beginning “CP”, line 3: Removed duplicate “.” after “clarifies”.
- p. 133, second paragraph, line 4: first “or” is no longer italicized.
- p. 139, second paragraph, line 7: “Rhinos” has become “Rhinoceroses”.
- p. 139, third paragraph, line 2: “code” has become “coded”.
- p. 139, paragraph ““This or that” responses”” line 1: Replaced “Finally, in situations” with “In situations”.
- p. 167, 3rd bullet point: Added “.” after “blue”.
- p. 175, row “V”: Removed “,” after “(D4)”.
- p. 180, line 2: “2003” has become “1993”.
- p. 256, row “4”, column “Response”, line 1: Replaced “Also could” with “Could”.
- p. 262, row “79”, column “Clarification”, line 3: Removed “,” after “eyes” and “(Dd27))” was corrected to “(Dd27),”.
- p. 322: Under section “b” the bullet style for the subparagraphs changed from lowercase roman numerals to lowercase letters.
- p. 324, bullet “e”, second to last line: Added “Profile” before “Appendix” and “of the results” after “Appendix”.
- p. 325-328: The alphabetical listing of bullet points was corrected after “g”.

- p. 331, Table 10.1, row “Prompts PR”, column “Response Process”, line third from bottom: “or” changed to “of”.
- p. 355, row “M Proportion”, column “Interpretation”, 3rd line from bottom: Removed “)” after “proportion”.
- p. 375, row “Aggressive Movement”, row, “General”, column “Interpretation”, last line: Replaced “(inhibited).” with “inhibited.)”.

- p. 472, last paragraph, line 1: “13.1, 13.2, and 13.3” has become “16.1, 16.2, and 16.3”.
- p. 480, first paragraph beneath heading “Creating Complexity Adjusted Reference Data”, last line: “ones” has become “one’s”.
- p. 519, Added: “Exner, J.E. (1997). Rorschach Research Study Group Mission Statement. Unpublished manuscript.
- p. 521, first “Kleiger, J. H.” entry: Typo “Kieiger” changed to “Kleiger” and punctuation corrected.

Corrections from the 2nd to the 3rd Printing of the Softcover Manual

Corrections that have potential implications for applied use

- p. 13, bullet 3-b under “The Essentials: Managing the Response Phase” has become 3-c and the wording has been changed to “Make sure additional responding is not just an elaboration of the first response”.
- p. 13, a new bullet 3-b has been added under “The Essentials: Managing the Response Phase,” which reads “The first time it’s needed provide a reminder to give two responses, maybe three”.
- p. 29, bullet 3-b under “Managing the Response Phase” has become 3-c and the wording has been changed to “Make sure additional responding is not just an elaboration of the first response”.
- p. 29, a new bullet 3-b has been added under “The Essentials: Managing the Response Phase,” which reads “The first time it’s needed provide a reminder to give two responses, maybe three”.
- p. 41, line 9-10 under “Synthesis and vagueness”: Replaced “green mountain” with “green field”.
- p. 78, line 2 of row “(H)” in Table 4.2: Replaced “doll” with “fairy”
- p. 78, final line of row “(H)” in Table 4.2: Replaced “person” with “giant.”
- p. 78, Table 4.2, row “Hd”, line 1-2: Added “wig,” after “chest,”.
- p. 80, row “Ex”, line 1: Added “a rocket blasting off,” after “bomb blasts,”.

p. 80, row “Fi”: Replaced all with “Fire, including references to flames, embers, or smoke. Just steam or contrails from planes would not be Fi, but colored exhaust or blast from an engine would be Fi rather than Ex.”.

p. 82, second paragraph, line 4: Replaced “leaf” with “landmass”.

p. 82, 3rd line up from the bottom of “Sy” paragraph: Replaced “(DS7)” with “(DS5).”

p. 101, line 2 in “Anticipatory movements”: Replaced “will be coded for movement” with “will be coded for the movement that is about to take place”.

p. 101, bullet 1 under “a versus p threshold examples”: Added: “sobbing,” before “stretching”, added “staring,” before “talking loudly”, and added “and” before “yelling”.

p. 101, bullet 2 under “a versus p threshold examples”: Replaced “staring,” with “'looking,' and”.

p. 105, paragraph “Multiple color/form codes with multiple object responses”, line 1: Replaced “Responses” with “Color is coded on a per object basis and responses”.

p. 106, line 3: Replaced “Card II” with “Card III”

p. 110, paragraph 2 under heading “Reflection (r)”, line 3: Replaced “When one is not sure whether there is a Reflection” with “When the communication of Reflection is ambiguous”.

p. 140, Table 4.12: Added a new row, placing “Ghost (unspecified)” between “Giant, Creature” and “Dinosaur” and added “Poltergeist” between “Monster” and “Tyrannosaurus”.

p. 140, Table 4.12: Replaced the blank row on the “Above the Threshold” side with “Bull, Rhinoceros, or Bison with Horn(s) Identified.”

p. 158, Table 5.1, line 3 under “Determinants”: Replaced “M” with “m.”

p. 160, Table 5.2: Replaced “Content” with “Response” and “Response” with “Clarification.”

p. 190: Updated contours for images of D1 and D6 with dotted lines to indicate ambiguity about the boundary near D4 and made the same corrections in the body of the table on pp. 191 and 193.

p. 216: Updated contours of D4 with dotted lines to indicate ambiguity about the boundary near Dd31 and made the same change in the body of the table on p. 219.

p. 238: Updated contours for D3 with dotted lines to indicate ambiguity about the boundary near Dd28 and made the same change in the body of the table on p. 240.

p. 249, item 13 under D8: Replaced “Not Otherwise Listed to This Area” with “Not Listed, Fitting Contours.”

p. 257, R# 28, Clarification, line 3: Replaced “Standing on a cliff” with “And the Cliff”.

p. 259, R# 49, Response, last line: Replaced “D1” with “D11”.

p. 260, R# 58, Card: Replaced “VII” with “VI”.

p. 260, R# 58, Response: Replaced “D6” with “D5”.

p. 260, R# 58, Clarification, line 6: Replaced “like the cutaway of the edge” with “like its cutaway at the edge”.

p. 269: In the location chart, “58=W” has been moved to Card VI, just below “57 = W”.

p. 272: In the location chart, “97 = W” has been deleted and “97 – ” has been added before “transsexual”.

p. 273, Table 7.2, Response #4, R-Opt Column: Replaced “Pu” with “Pr”.

p. 273, Table 7.2, Response #15, Loc Column: Replaced “D” with “Dd”.

p. 273, Table 7.2, response 22, column P: Removed “P.”

p. 273, Table 7.2, Response #41, Thematic Column: Added “COP”

p. 273, Table 7.2, Response #48, Content Column: Replaced “A” with “Ad”.

p. 274, Table 7.2, Response #61, FQ Column: Replaced “o” with “n”.

p. 274, Table 7.2, Response #66, Determinant Column: Replaced “CF” with “C”.

- p. 274, Table 7.2, Response #79, Content Column: Replaced “A” with “H”.
- p. 274, Table 7.2, Response #89, Loc Column: Replaced “D” with “W”; Loc# Column: Deleted “1,6”.
- p. 274, Table 7.2, Response #96, Thematic Column: Added “MOR” after “AGM”.
- p. 275, Table 7.3, row 9: Added “Individual flowers have a form demand and the communication about shape and petals rules out Vg.” after “CP. ”.
- p. 275, Table 7.3, row 15: Replaced all with “This is an atypical response when it comes to assigning location. Historically, this image of the crab at D1 with a claw at D12 has been coded as Dd, even though this percept occurs frequently enough that it actually meets criteria for a D designation. Nonetheless, like percepts of other single objects that are formed from the combination of D1 and D12, it is still coded as Dd. “Claws” have potential for harm and are given as an example in the AGC coding section.”.
- p. 275, Table 7.3, row 16: Replaced “No comment” with “The response communicates form and structure so Vg is not coded.”.
- p. 275, Table 7.3, row 19: Replaced “No comment” with “Praying hands are from a single person so no Sy or 2.”.
- p. 276, Table 7.3, row 25: Replaced “it appears they are getting ready to kiss so Mp” with “rather than kissing, code Mp rather than Ma”.
- p. 276, Table 7.3, row 27: Replaced “No comment” with “Form specification of the plant preceded color so it was coded FC rather than CF. However, if the last two sentences of the CP were reversed, it would be coded CF.”.
- p. 276, Table 7.3, row 41, last line: Added “, but the coordinated activity warrants a COP. ” after “MAH”.
- p. 277, Table 7.3, row 48, last line: Added “Even though the wording sounded like A, the head exhausts the D2 location, so Ad is coded rather than A.” after “not Mp”.
- p. 278, Table 7.3, row 66, last line: Added “The symbol has no form and is not in a clear positional relationship to other objects so C is coded rather than CF.” after “Color is coded”.
- p. 279, Table 7.3, row 77, last line: Added “The statement “I don't know if it is just the color” suggests color is the primary determinant over form so CF is coded” after “DR is not coded”.
- p. 279, Table 7.3, row 79 line 4-5: Replaced “Code both Hd for face and A for butterfly” with “Code both Hd for face and H for “a person,” even though it is “sorta like a butterfly with wings.”.
- p. 280, Table 7.3, row 86, last line: Added “, though the submissive posture leads to coding p rather than a” to the end of the final sentence.
- p. 280, Table 7.3, row 90, last line: Added as a new final sentence: “Digestion, like eating, is a natural process of consumption. Had there been more emphasis on the food being destroyed or broken apart MOR could be considered.”.
- p. 281, Table 7.3, row 93, last line: Added as a new final sentence: “There was no communication suggesting space was being used in any way, so SI is not coded.”.
- p. 336 and 337, in “Codes” column: Added “%” after all instances of “CritCont.”

p. 343, row “Form”, column “Codes”: Replaced “F%” with “Included in F%.”

p. 345, rows for “Aggressive Movement” and “Morbid Content,” column “Codes”: Added “%” after “CritCont.”

p. 372, Table 10.16, row Critical Contents, column Interpretation, paragraph 1, last line: Deleted “and Fire”.

p. 456, Table 15.1, row Critical Contents%, column Administration Behaviors and Observations, line 8: Added “Fi+” between “Ex+” and “Sx+”.

p. 506, Table “G.1”, Header row: Replaced “Can view profiled results” with “Can view, print, or download all results.” Replaced “Can download response and” with “Can download file of response and.” And replaced “protocol level normative data” with “protocol level normative data for each case.”

Corrections that can be safely ignored

All hyphens are replaced by em dashes or minus signs, as appropriate (e.g., all instances of “M-” are replaced with “M–”).

p. iv, line 30: Added “Third Printing”.

p. iv, line 32: Added “with Gregory Meyer.”.

p. vi, line 1: Replaced “In addition to those who have co-authored chapters or sections of this manual, we gratefully thank” with “We gratefully thank those who have co-authored chapters or sections of this manual, as well as”.

p. vi, before “Research Collaborators” section: Added a new section heading “Chapter or Section Co-Authors” followed by this list of names: “Robert F. Bornstein, Nicolae Dumitrascu, Ramona Dumitrascu, Elizabeth Koonce, Helena Lunazzi, Fatima Miralles, Regina Sonia Gattas Fernandes do Nascimento, Ricardo Primi, Norma Lottenberg Semer, Yoriko Takahashi, Anna Elisa de Villemor-Amaral, and Latife Yazigi”.

p. vi: Added “(Continued)” to bottom of page.

p. xiii, line 4: Replaced 'To' with 'to'.

p. 6, line 12: Replaced 'relationship' with 'process'.

p. 7, lines 8-9: Deleted the sentence "If desired, the examiner may sit slightly behind the respondent, but facing in the same direction."

p. 21, line 2 under “Laptop Documentation”: Replaced “five” with “six”.

p. 21, line 5 under “Laptop Documentation”, after “Clarification Phases” added “, followed by a narrow column to designate prompts and pulls”.

p. 23, Figure 2.2, “Card #” column heading was replaced with “Cd #”, and the “R” column heading was replaced with “R#”.

p. 29, bullet 1 under “Managing the Response Phase”: Added “,” after “What might this be?”.

p. 53, last line on the page: Replaced “The following table” with “Table 3.11.”

p. 86, line 3: Replaced “the” with “they.”

p. 99, 2nd to last line of first paragraph: Replaced “code” with “determinant code.”

p. 101, bullet 1 under “a versus p threshold examples”: Replaced “.” after “movement descriptions” with “:”.

p. 103, first paragraph beneath Table 4.6, line 4: Added “is” after “response object”.

p. 104, line 2 under heading “CF”: Replaced “responses” with “objects”.

p. 104, example 1 under “CF”, line 1: Replaced “keyword” with “key word”.

p. 104, 2nd paragraph under heading “CF”, beginning with “Secondly”, line 1: Replaced “response” with “object”.

p. 112, line 1: Replaced “responses” with “response.”

p. 121, line 5 under “Example 1”: Replaced “themselves” with “himself.”

p. 123, example 6 under “FAB examples”: Replaced “NO” with “No”.

p. 124, line 2 under “Figure 4.6”: Replaced “points middle of card IV” with “points to middle of Card IV.”

p. 124, line 3: Replaced “again points middle of card IV” with “again points to middle of Card IV.”

p. 136, 3rd line from the bottom of paragraph “MAH and COP”: Replaced second “in” with “is.”

p. 137, 2nd paragraph, 2nd line from the bottom: Replaced “keywords” with “key words”.

p. 140, Table 4.12: Deleted the footnote indicator for “Bigfoot” and “Giant”, as well as the corresponding footnote that had said “Responses on these rows are generally given to Card IV.”

p. 140, Table 4.12, last row: Replaced “pinchers” with “pincers.”

p. 150, line 2 under “IV, RP”: “Replaced “ER” with “ERR.”

p. 151, line 4 under “V, RP”: Replaced “The Respondent” with “The respondent.”

p. 153, line 2 under “III, D3, RP”: Adjusted the end quote so that it came after “all” and not before “Code.”

p. 158, Table 5.1 title: Replaced “Resposne” with “Response.”

p. 167, 2nd line from bottom of paragraph above “Form dimension convergence”: Replaced “so that that they are” with “so that they are.”

p. 168, row “I”, lower cell, line 3: Replaced “keyword” with “key word”.

p. 171, line 7: Replaced “keywords” with “key words”.

p. 173, Table 5.8, moved the footnote designation from the heading “Question/Probe” to the end of line 1 after the entry “And the ____?”.

- p. 177, row “X”, lower cell, line 2: Replaced “keyword” with “key word”.
- p. 183, Card heading: Added “P = W – Bat or butterfly (head at D1)” after “Card I.”
- p. 191, Card heading: Added “P = D1 – Bear, dog, elephant, or lamb; usually head or upper body” after “Card II.”
- p. 196, Card heading: Added “P = D9 – Whole human figure or representation of one (e.g. doll)” after “Card III.”
- p. 205, Card heading: Added “P = W or D7 – Whole human or human-like figure [i.e., coded H or (H)]” after “Card IV.”
- p. 211, Card heading: Added “P = W – Bat or butterfly (head at D6 area)” after “Card V.”
- p. 217, Card heading: Added “P = W or D1 – animal skin, hide, rug, or pelt” after “Card VI.”
- p. 225, Card heading: Added “P = D9 – Human head or face (often with other features too)” after “Card VII.”
- p. 231, Card heading: Added “P = D1 – Whole animal (unspecified type or consistent with contours)” after “Card VIII.”
- p. 239, Card heading: Added “P = D3 – Human or human-like figure” after “Card IX.”
- p. 247, Card heading: Added “P = D1 – Crab or spider” after “Card X.”
- p. 258, R# 43, Response, last line: Deleted “(W)”.
- p. 259, R# 52, Response: Deleted “(W)”.
- p. 260, R# 58, Response: Deleted “(W)”.
- p. 261, R# 64, Response: Added a space after “D2”.
- p. 275, Table 7.3, row 7: Replaced “since” with “because”.
- p. 276, Table 7.3, row 28, last line: Deleted “The”.
- p. 276, Table 7.3, row 41: Replaced “... .” with “...”.
- p. 283 & 284: Updated the Code Sequence and Counts and Calculations tables with current formatting.
- p. 290, last line of “Blend” description: Moved the period inside the ending quotation mark.
- p. 295, line 3, paragraph beginning “Complexity”: Replaced “(1) Location and Object” with “(1) Location, Space, and Object.”
- p. 300, last line: Replaced “(See Appendix F)” with “(See Appendix E).”
- p. 321, first paragraph under “3) Pre-Interpretation Activities”; replaced the bullet point with “a)” and then re-sequenced the remaining paragraphs in this section so that the former “a)” became “b)”, “b)” became “c)”, etc.
- p. 327, line 4 from bottom of point “iii”: Replaced “imaginative, and” with “imaginative and.”

- p. 337, line 1 of row “Synthesis”: Replaced “and then integrating” with “and integrating.”
- p. 342, row “Form Dimension”, column “Codes”: Deleted the comma.
- p. 343, row “Reflection”, column “Codes”: Replaced “r is included” with “Included.”
- p. 363, row “PHR Proportion”, in the “Variables” column: Added a period to the end of the sentence beginning with “Derived from...”
- p. 365, row “V-Comp”, in “Variables” column: Added a period to the end of the sentence beginning with “Derived from...”
- p. 402, line 3 from bottom for footnote “72”: Added “, 2010” after “1996.”
- p. 448, last line, row “FQo%”: Deleted the second period.
- p. 456, Table 15.1, row Critical Contents%, column Administration Behaviors and Observations, line 8: Added “Ganellen, Wasyliw, Haywood, & Grossman, 1996;” before “Seamons”.
- p. 457, Table 15.1, row NPH/SumH, column Administration Behaviors and Observations, line 9: Deleted “corrections and”.
- p. 459, Table 15.2, Heading: Replaced “Engagement and Cognitive Processing Related CS Variables” with “CS Variables Related to Engagement and Cognitive Processing”.
- p. 460, Table 15.2, Heading: Replaced “Perception and Thinking Problems Related CS Variables” with “CS Variables Related to Perception and Thinking Problems”.
- p. 461, Table 15.2, Heading: Replaced “Stress and Distress Related CS Variables” with “CS Variables Related to Stress and Distress”.
- p. 462, Table 15.2, Heading: Replaced “Self and Other Representation Related CS Variables” with “CS Variables Related to Self and Other Representation”.
- p. 471, Table 16.2, Heading: Replaced “Rto” with “R to”.
- p. 520: Added “Ganellen, R.J., Wasyliw, O.E., Haywood, T.W., & Grossman, L.S. (1996). Can psychosis be malingered on the Rorschach? An empirical study. Journal of Personality Assessment, 66, 65-80.

Corrections from the 1st to the 2nd Printing of the Softcover Manual

Corrections that have potential implications for applied use

- p. 11, 8 lines from bottom: Added “(and regardless of the answer, treat the protocol cautiously)” to the end of point #3.
- p. 13, line 13: Added “(a second response is not required)” to the end of 3.c.
- p. 23, Figure 2.2, an “R-Opt” column was added on the right.

- p. 29, bullet #3 under “Coping with Possible Coaching or Motivated Distortion in Responding”: Added “(and regardless of the answer, treat the protocol cautiously).”
- p. 29, point C under bullet #3, under “Managing the Response Phase”: Added “(a second response is not required).”
- p. 61, bullet for Card II right above the lowermost images: Replaced “DdS5,3” with “Dd99(5+3).”
